

FACT Sheet

LOS ANGELES COUNTY DEPARTMENT OF CHILDREN AND FAMILY SERVICES MENTAL HEALTH TRANSITIONAL HOUSING PROGRAMS

What is the Mental Health Transitional Housing Program?

Youth with an Axis I mental health diagnosis are eligible to apply to this transitional housing program. The youth will reside in a safe and supportive 24-hour residence who have emancipated from care including the Foster Care and Probation System. The capacity of this program is 50 beds. There is no cost to the youth for this program. EFFECTIVE 7/1/2016, Los Angeles Homeless Services Authority (LAHSA) assumed the contracts for these three providers.

GOALS

- The program provides a safe living environment while helping youth to develop life skills for successful independent living.
- It supports youth by providing stable housing and services such as mental health, substance abuse, education assistance, counseling, employment support and training, and case management.

TARGET POPULATION

- DCFS & Probation Youth between the ages of 18 to 21.
- Independent Living Program (ILP) eligible youth.
- Youth that are homeless or at risk of being homeless
- Youth that can work or attend school/training.

LENGTH OF PROGRAM

- Youth may stay in transitional housing for up to thirty-six (36) months, if they enter at 18 years of age.

HOUSING

The youth will be provided with private or shared bedroom with no more than two (2) persons per bedroom.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

Former foster youth and probation youth are provided the following services: case management, 24-hour residential supervision, crisis intervention, security, meals, restrooms and showers. Youth will be required to have weekly or bi-weekly contact with their case manager.

TRAINING

The goal of the independent living skills training is to assist the youth become self-sufficient and independent. Youth participation is required in independent living skills training course to include, but limited to: employment and education support, money management, meal planning and basic living skills.

APPLICATION PROCESS

Youth can apply to the transitional housing programs simply by completing the transitional housing and the ILP Verification Form. All youth will be screened and interviewed by housing providers prior to acceptance into the program. It is recommended that youth apply to multiple housing providers.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

For additional information, please contact the following Youth Development Services Division staff:

- Robin Kim, DCFS Program Manager (213) 351-0122 kimra@dcfs.lacounty.gov
- Gregory Breuer, DCFS (213) 351-0187 breueg@dcfs.lacounty.gov
- John Thompson, Probation (213) 351-0156 john.thompson@probation.lacounty.gov
- Michael Scoggins, Housing Director (213) 351-0118 scoggm@dcfs.lacounty.gov