What is Independent Living Program Transitional Housing

The Independent Living Program (ILP) Transitional Housing will provide a safe and supportive 24-hour residence for youths who have emancipated from Foster Care or Probation and who are ILP eligible. The capacity of this program is 175 beds. There is no cost to the youth for this program.

GOALS

- The program provides a safe living environment while helping youth to develop life skills for successful independent living.
- It supports youth by providing stable housing and services such as education assistance, counseling, employment support and training, and case management.

TARGET POPULATION

- DCFS & Probation youth between the ages of 18 to 21
- Independent Living Program (ILP) eligible youth
- Youth that can work or attend school/training
- Youth that are homeless or at risk of being homeless

LENGTH OF PROGRAM

- Youth may stay in transitional housing for up to thirty-six (36) months, if they enter at 18 years of age.

HOUSING

The youth will be provided with private or shared bedroom with no more than two (2) persons per bedroom.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

Former foster youth and probation youth are provided the following services: case management, 24-hour residential supervision, crisis intervention, security, meals, restrooms and showers. Youth will be required to have weekly or bi-weekly contact with their case manager.

TRAINING

The goal of the independent living skills training is to assist the youth to become self-sufficient and independent. Youth participation is required in independent living skills training course to include, but not limited to: employment and education support, budget planning, meal planning and basic living skills.

APPLICATION PROCESS

Youth can apply to the transitional housing programs simply by completing the Transitional Housing Application and the ILP Verification Form. All youth will be screened and interviewed by housing providers prior to acceptance into the program. It is recommended that youth apply to multiple housing providers.
