UCLA Bruin Week is a FREE 5-day virtual summer program for current 9th graders

Participants will learn what it takes to be competitive applicants to UCLA and the UC system. This program focuses on the importance of higher education and preparation for college including academic planning, college student experience, personal development, and UC Admission. The format consists of virtual group workshops and presentations via Zoom. Students will work in small teams and large groups.

Students will...

- Leave with a thorough understanding of the UC college application process
- Understand how their attitudes and choices affect their future
- Learn what it takes to become a competitive applicant for a selective institution like UCLA
- Have a chance to interact with current UCLA undergraduates
- Meet with an admission officer/reader to discuss their personal academic plan

Eligibility Criteria

- Be a current 9th grader, entering 10th grade in Fall 2021
- Have at least a 3.0 GPA
- Submit a completed application with copy of unofficial transcript
- Must be able to participate virtually in all five days of the program: 9am–12pm, Monday, June 21st, 2021 through Friday, June 25th, 2021
